Membership Details

To get the most out of your membership, first-year professional, associate, young professional and student members are required to join a component (local chapter, council or community).

After the first year of membership, local chapter, council or community membership is optional. You may join one or more component groups.

MEMBERSHIP TYPES

FM Professional
Facility practitioners and educators whose primary responsibilities are to provide, oversee or teach one (or more) facility management competency.

Associate
Individuals whose primary responsibilities include: business development; sales and/or marketing as a consultant; representation of a manufacturer, vendor, dealer or distributor; and/or provider of facility-related products and services.

Young Professional
Individuals who are 35 years of age or younger.

Student
Candidates who are in full-time study at an accredited college or university.

Discovery
Individuals new to the profession or those who do not primarily work in FM. Have access to limited benefits. New members only.

Retired
Members in good standing upon their permanent retirement from full-time facility management practice, business development, sales and/or marketing.

LOCAL CHAPTERS
Engage and connect with local facility management professionals.

INDUSTRY COUNCILS
The 16 councils support the specialized interests and job responsibilities of facility management professionals within specific industries.

COMMUNITIES
Six communities of practice within our global membership based on common interests and goals in specific FM competency areas.

By completing this membership application, you agree to adhere to the IFMA bylaws and code of ethics. For a complete copy of bylaws and code of ethics, visit ifma.org. Membership fees to IFMA are not deductible as a charitable contribution for federal income tax purposes but may be partially deductible as an ordinary business expense. IFMA estimates that 1% of your dues are not deductible because of lobbying activities on behalf of its members.
Group Membership Discount Billing Plan

GROUP MEMBERSHIP PLAN

A plan administrator must be identified to serve as a liaison between the group and IFMA staff, and to receive the annual group renewal invoice.

- All memberships within the group belong to the organization and not the individual.
- Membership changes may be made by the plan administrator throughout the membership year.
- All memberships within the group discount plan are billed through one invoice annually and must be paid with one check or credit card. Multiple forms of payment cannot be accepted.
- Additional new members can be added throughout the membership year and invoiced immediately.
- All new members must join a chapter, council or community the first year of membership. Current IFMA memberships can be pro-rated to match the group's paid through date.
- Group members are not contacted individually regarding renewing.
- Dues and fees applicable for a full-year membership (12 months).
- Discount applies to Associate and/or Professional memberships only.

EVENT DISCOUNTS

IFMA’s World Workplace Conference & Expo group discounts are available—register four members for full event registration and the fifth registration is FREE. Discounts are also available for other events.
